THE DENNIS LEARNING CENTER’S TIPS FOR SUCCESS

As students are faced with balancing multiple courses and maintaining momentum during the semester, self-regulation and time management are crucial. Promote students’ success by helping them enact the following strategies:

- Take Reasonable Risk
  - Bite-size Pieces
  - Go for Goal

- Take Responsibility
  - Think Positively
  - Plan

- Search the Environment
  - Just Ask
  - Visualize It

- Use Feedback
  - Keep Track
  - Tell Yourself

THE DENNIS LEARNING CENTER’S TOOLS FOR SUCCESS

Elective Courses in Educational Studies (formerly Educational Policy & Leadership) credit-bearing and letter graded courses; no prerequisites; can be taken in any order

- 1159 Online Learning Strategies and Skills
  - 7 weeks, 2 credits
  - Gain knowledge and skills that promote effective, efficient online learning

- 1259 Learning and Motivation Strategies for Success in College
  - 14 weeks, 3 credits
  - Develop strategies for time management, academic confidence and motivation, active reading and listening, and exam preparation

- 1359 Technology Enhanced-Learning Strategies
  - 14 weeks, 3 credits
  - Build self-reflection, feedback, and collaboration skills through individual and team projects using technology

Workshops
workshops by request on a variety of topics related to college success strategies

- Nine standard workshop topics are available (e.g., procrastination, memory tools)
- Option: request a custom workshop for your course for a nominal fee

Appointments
individual sessions help students and identify and work toward academic goals

- One-on-one learning strategy counseling and coaching sessions
- Common concerns include procrastination, test taking, and learning how to study