

Academy of Teaching Executive Council Meeting
September 24, 2015
Faculty Club
10:00 am

Present:

Lisa Cravens-Brown
Marc Ankerman
Avi Benatar
Wayne Carlson
Ben McCorkle
Caroline Breitenberger
Alan Kalish
Bishun Pandey
Ann Christy
Jennie Williams

Introductions and updates

Debrief on today's Fall Reception / Breakfast with the President

Members reflected on what they appreciated about the event, as well as ideas that sprang from the conversation.

- Giving feedback on teaching, importance of training/preparation
- Double-blind peer review system, perhaps peer institutions
- Appreciated the questions that were asked
- Graduate student education and value shaping
- Digital badging
- New faculty training/on-boarding about teaching
- “Easy” activities because incentive is low
- Study “abroad” for instructors

Teaching and Learning Institute

- Caroline, Alan, Ben, Ann will be at meeting tomorrow

Spring Conference planning

- Topic: Making teaching matter at a research university
- Keynote Ideas

- Brian Coppola, University of Michigan (2009 U.S. Professor of the Year) recommended by Ann Christy
- Peer review of teaching – Nancy Chisholm – recommended by Alan
- Emery – Promotion on the basis of teaching – recommended by Caroline Breitenberger
- Note: Each person will contact his/her suggested speaker by next meeting
- Peer-reviewed presentations
 - Have them to review in January
 - Alan will adapt a proposal from another event
 - Call for proposals needs to go out in November
 - Students panels/involvement in presentations
- Speaker the evening before at Marion campus?
- Limit to OSU for now
- April 28-29 (finals week)

TABLED

- Talking about Teaching blog
- Summit for Teaching and Learning (May 13, 2015) synopsis
- Collaboration between the Academy and the Institute

Jennie will send out a Doodle poll to schedule an October meeting.